

GLOBE WILDCARD SERIES

GLOBE MATCHES HYPE OF WORLD POKER SERIES WITH GLOBE WILDCARD SERIES

By definition a Wildcard is an unknown or unpredictable factor. Globe has launched the Wildcard Series searching for the Wildcard in your town.

The Globe Wildcard Series are twelve skate contests held throughout the US and Canada between September and November 2004. The top three qualifiers from each event will parlay their chips for the Globe Wildcard Series Finals to be held in Los Angeles on November 21st.

The top two finishers from the LA final will then receive Wildcard entry to the invitation-only 2005 Globe World Cup of Skateboarding in Australia, the most prestigious and progressive event on the WCS.

The Wildcard Series are fun, free sessions, held in a Jam format, open to anyone over twelve, un-sponsored, sponsored, local shredders and seasoned pros. If you've ever dreamt of having a shot at going all-in against the forty best skaters in the world and being the ultimate "Cinderella story" in skate history then this is your chance.

Previous players to have a seat at the table of the Globe World Cup of Skateboarding in Australia have included Tony Trujillo, Danny Way, Rick McCrank, Ryan Sheckler, Greg Lutzka, and 2004 GWCS Champion, Ronnie Creager.

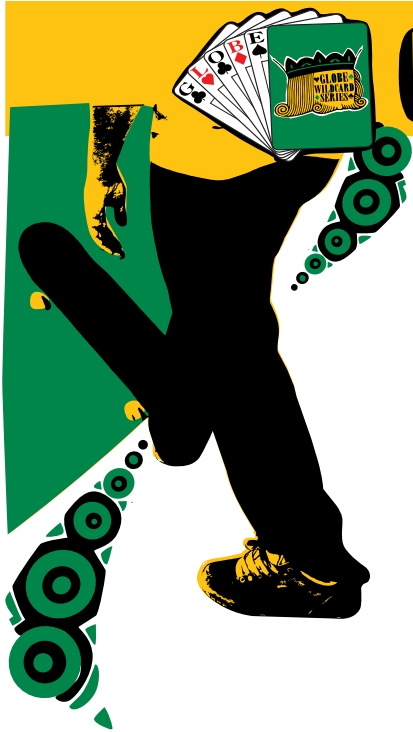

With free entry for competitors and visitors, free shuttles from local shops to each location, a DJ, free BBQ and drinks, enough free giveaways for the whole town, appearances and autograph signings by Globe Team riders, this is an opportunity to see who has an Ace up their sleeve, and who's just a joker.
